What is CTE?

Churches Together in England was established in 1990, along with Cytûn (Wales) and ACTS (Scotland) to offer 'resourced space' for sharing between the Churches on a wide range of common interests and concerns. Churches Together in Britain and Ireland brings together the churches' work across the four nations.

In counties and cities across England 'intermediate' ecumenical bodies, established by their own Churches, offer support and resources to the 2500 local 'Churches Together' groupings. 900+ Local Ecumenical Partnerships are supported at this level.

CTE offers training and ongoing support for 'intermediate' Ecumenical / County Officers for their work.

The Enabling Group of CTE draws representatives of all member churches together to reflect on the ecumenical journey, and to offer direction to the work.
