

The British and Irish Association for Practical Theology (Mission Studies Special Interest Group)
In association with CTE's Mission Research Network

INVITE YOU TO A

MISSION STUDIES DAY CONFERENCE

Thursday 12 May 2022 | 10.30am-4pm

The Frances Young Institute, The Queens Foundation, Birmingham

Tickets £30 per person (includes coffee and lunch)

To book email: missionstudies@biapt.org

Mission & lament (and joy)

We are delighted to gather in person at Queens in Birmingham on the 12th May and hear from two fantastic scholars reflecting on our theme around Lament and Mission thinking particularly of the pandemic, the end of Christendom the BLM movement and the conflict in Ukraine. Peniel will give our keynote with Eve responding and adding some thoughts around mission and joy. In the afternoon we have the opportunity for 3 short papers of around 20 minutes each. Please contact Nigel Rooms and Ben Aldous with an abstract of 150 words if you would like to be considered for submitting some work in progress.
ben.aldous@cte.org.uk | nigel.rooms@churchmissionsociety.org

Revd Dr Peniel Jesudason
Rufus Rajkumar

Revd Dr Peniel Jesudason Rufus Rajkumar BD (The United Theological College, Bangalore) MA (Sri Venkateshwara University) PhD (University of Kent at Canterbury) is Global Theologian with USPG, the oldest Anglican mission agency and a member of the faculty at Ripon College Cuddesdon. Until recently he served as Programme Executive and Coordinator of the Office of Interreligious Dialogue and Cooperation of the World Council of Churches.

Dr Eve Parker

Dr Eve Parker, FRSA, MTh, MLitt, PhD (University of St Andrews), is an Anglican Liberation Theologian, and currently Research Associate in Theological Education in the Department of Theology and Religion at Durham University, where she works with the Common Awards team. She has previously worked for the Council for World Mission in London and Singapore on theological education programmes across the globe, and for the United Reformed Church in global and intercultural ministries.