

County Ecumenical Officer - Herefordshire

Salary: £6914 pa 45 hours per calendar month – home based

To commence January 2023

Do you have a passion to see the Body of Christ working, worshipping and serving together?

Churches Together in Herefordshire (CTiH) is seeking a person with experience and passion for ecumenical mission to encourage and develop the principles and practices of Christian unity throughout Herefordshire.

Duties of the role:

- Develop and support relationships between Christian churches at local and county levels
- Spread the good news of ecumenical relationships through social media, a monthly newsletter, the CTiH website, and in person
- Undertake presentations to various groups about the work of CTiH
- Facilitate and service meetings of CTiH
- Support Churches Together groups around the county
- Relate to Churches Together in England, undertake training and attend annual national meetings of County Ecumenical Officers

The post carries a high level of autonomy and requires some evening and weekend work, including travel around the county.

Closing date for applications: 16.10.22. For more information, job description and application form:

Anna Nugent herefordshireceo@gmail.com

Or Steve Sully steve.sully@ccchurch.org.uk