

PUBLIC LECTURE

Tuesday 12 March 2024

7pm at Flourish House,
2 Cathedral Ave., Wells, Somerset
BA5 1FD

Future Church?

Mission, spiritual ecumenism and the gift of the 'other'

with Ben Aldous

All welcome. No ticket needed. Refreshments at 6:30pm. Free parking.

The Revd Dr Benjamin Aldous is the principal officer for mission and evangelism at Churches Together in England the national ecumenical instrument.

Ben is particularly interested in mission, ecumenism and intercultural theology. He spent 16 years in Cambodia and South Africa firstly as a church planter and latterly as a parish priest. He helps host and curate conversations amongst denominational church leaders with the portfolio of mission from across CTE's 52 member churches. He is the author of The God Who Walks Slowly (SCM 2022) and 'Lived' Mission in 21st Century Britain (SCM 2024). He is a research fellow at The Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological Education in Birmingham.

Further info from Jonathan Lloyd, County Ecumenical Officer

ctogethersomerset@gmail.com www.ctsomerset.org 01749 705103