Receptivity – mutual learning and reciprocity

The background is a solid teal color. It features several abstract shapes: a small red circle in the top left, a teal leaf-like shape in the top left, a large teal rounded square with a dotted pattern in the top right, a teal circle in the middle right, a small teal circle below it, a teal rounded square with a dotted pattern in the bottom left, and a teal teardrop shape in the bottom right.

Receptive ecumenism

Question – As member church representatives what do you appreciate about the Charities and Networks in Association at CTE?

What gifts do they bring to you?

Re-imagination

- The background is a dark teal color. On the right side, there are several abstract shapes: a large teal shape with a fine dot pattern, a solid teal shape below it, and a small red circle in the upper right corner. The text is positioned on the left side of the slide.

 - 3. The opening of evangelicalism effect

What we could/should/do offer?

- 1. Ecumenical literacy
- 2. Connecting the national, intermediate and local
- 3. Help see the bigger picture in British, European and Global ecumenical circles
