BEING THE PEOPLE OF GOD

Missional Ecclesiology for Uncertain Times

Join us for a conversation day in Oxford on the 17th March 2026 from 10am-4pm based around the book 'Being the People of God: Missional Ecclesiology for Uncertain Times' published by SCM Press. The day will include a panel discussion based around some of the key themes in the book.

Are you an early career researcher, a doctoral student or completing an MA?

The Mission research Network will be hosting papers in the afternoon loosely based on the topic of 'missional ecclesiology'. Contact Ben Aldous from CTE at ben.aldous@cte.org.uk with details of your idea and a short abstract of around 150 words to be considered.

FREE in person or online but you must register via in order to join at
